

Programme – 22 October 2009

- 14.00 Registration
- 14.30 - 16.00 Douglas Grindlay, Information Specialist, NHS Evidence – skin disorders
What is a Health Care Needs Assessment (HCNA) and how do you do it?
- Julia Schofield, Principal Lecturer , University of Hertfordshire & Consultant Dermatologist United Lincolnshire Hospitals NHS Trust
Skin conditions a HCNA: key messages
- Andrew Langford, Chief Executive, Skin Care Campaign
What does the HCNA mean for patients?
- 16.00 - 16.30 Refreshment break
- 16.30 - 18.30 Stephen Kownacki, General Practitioner, Primary Care Dermatology Society
Commissioning Primary Care services: what does the HCNA tell us?
- Alex Anstey, Consultant Dermatologist, British association of Dermatologists
Commissioning specialist services: what does the HCNA tell us?
- Julia Schofield, Principal Lecturer , University of Hertfordshire & Consultant Dermatologist United, Lincolnshire Hospitals NHS Trust
Linking the HCNA to the commissioning cycle